Book Discussion
The Lost City of Z
by David Grann
Wednesday, July 20
7:00 p.m.

"Suspenseful...Rollicking...Reads with all the pace and excitement of a movie thriller" --The New York Times

In 1925, the legendary British explorer Percy Fawcett ventured into the Amazon jungle, in search of a fabled civilization. He never returned. Over the years countless perished trying to find evidence of his party and the place he called "The Lost City of Z." In this masterpiece of narrative non-fiction, journalist David Grann interweaves the spellbinding stories of Fawcett's quest for "Z" and his own journey into the deadly jungle, as he unravels the greatest exploration mystery of the twentieth century.

Copies of the book are available at the library.

Classic Movie Night
The Bad Seed
© Warner Brothers
Monday, July 18
6:00 p.m.

This 1956 film is one of the greatest horror movies made. Forget all of that blood and guts and popping out of the bushes to scare people. That fear only lasts for a second...this movie plays with your mind and lasts forever. Nothing is scarier than polite Miss Rhoda Penmark, played by Patti McCormack. This film is not rated and runs 129 minutes. Local film buff, Glenn Bergeron will introduce the film. Popcorn and soda served.
