Libby App for OverDrive Downloadable Books

Getting started with Libby

STEP 1: Install the Libby app from your device’s app store. Kindle Fire instructions available in the library.

STEP 2: In Libby, follow the prompts to find your library and sign in with a valid library card. (You may need to do this twice.)

STEP 3: Browse your library’s collection and borrow a title.

STEP 4: Borrowed titles appear on your Shelf and download to the app automatically when you’re connected to Wi-Fi, so you can read them when you’re offline. Be sure to download to the device to avoid data charges when not connected to Wi-Fi.

From your Shelf, you can:

- Tap Open Book, Open Audiobook, or Open Magazine to start reading or listening to a title.
- Tap Manage Loan to see options like Renew, Return, or Send to Device to send a book to Kindle (U.S. libraries only).

If you need more help with Libby, please call the library, 603-436-8548.

Classic Movie Night

“The Last Command” ©Paramount Pictures

Monday, February 24 6pm

Story of Jim Bowie at the Alamo. Starring Sterling Hayden, Anna Maria Alberghetti, Richard Carlson, Ernest Borgnine. Directed by Frank Lloyd. This 1955 movie is Not Rated and runs 110 minutes. It’s 1834. Texas is being strangled by the tyrannical military rule of General Santa, Mexico’s power-mad president. The outnumbered Texan defenders fight heroically for freedom in one of the fiercest and bloodiest battles in American history. Local film buff Glenn Bergeron will introduce the film and share movie trivia. Popcorn and soda served.

Looking Ahead to March

Life Downstairs:
British Servant Culture in Fact, Fiction, and Film
presented by Prof. Ann McClellan
Hosted by the Friends of the Library
Sponsored by New Hampshire Humanities

Thursday, March 5 6:30pm

Servant narratives have been popular for centuries. Many contemporary British and North American writers, filmmakers, and television executives have turned to master/servant relationships as their subject matter. Join Ann McClellan as she explores the history behind the rise and fall of British servants and why Americans are so fascinated by their stories on page and screen.

Book Discussion

“Inheriting Edith” by Zoe Fishman

Wednesday, February 19 7pm

A poignant breakout novel, for fans of J. Courtney Sullivan and Elin Hilderbrand, about a single mother who inherits a beautiful beach house with a caveat—she must take care of the ornery elderly woman who lives in it.

Copies available in the library.
