“An Anonymous Girl” by Greer Hendricks and Sarah Pekkanen
Wednesday, March 18
7pm
Looking to earn some easy cash, Jessica Farris agrees to be a test subject in a psychological study about ethics and morality. But as the study moves from the exam room to the real world, the line between what is real and what is one of Dr. Shields’s experiments blurs. Copies available in the library.

Life Downstairs:
British Servant Culture in Fact, Fiction, and Film
Presented by Prof. Ann McClellan
Thursday, March 5
6:30pm
Servant narratives have been popular for centuries. Many contemporary British and North American writers, filmmakers, and television executives have turned to master/servant relationships as their subject matter. Join Ann McClellan as she explores the history behind the rise and fall of British servants and why Americans are so fascinated by their stories on page and screen.
