Library Services

The library building remains closed to the public due to COVID-19. Curbside service continues. Please call or email to schedule pick ups of your favorite authors, a new DVD, a new music CD, magazines or activity kits.

Remember, the Interlibrary Loan Service is also available for those titles in storage or older titles we do not own.

Need suggestions?

Call the library, and staff will review what is on the shelf or pick titles for you to read, watch or listen to. Also check the “Lists” tab on the online catalog for titles on the “Best of 2020” list.

Don’t see the book or movie you want?

Suggest a title for purchase.

If we purchase the item we will put you on the reserve list.
Temporary Remote Access to Ancestry Library Edition

ProQuest is providing temporary remote access during the COVID pandemic. You’ll need your library card number and password. The same combination you use for the library’s catalog and OverDrive/Libby.

On our Catalog’s homepage you’ll see a message on the left about the temporary access and the link to the Links page. Once on the Links page select Ancestry Library Edition. Enter your library card number and password in the Account Log On dialog box.

Start searching from home for clues to fabulous family stories!

The library building remains closed to the public, but this is just another library service you may still utilize during the pandemic. Remember, Heritage Quest is also available for your research needs.

Call the library during business hours if you need assistance, 603-436-8548.

New for Children and Teens

Coming mid-January

Book Talks for Grades 4-6

What’s new? See what new books are at the library. Take a peek, something new might be waiting for you. Watch for links to book talk videos.

Story Time Take-Home Bags

Do your own story time right at home. Each bag will include a book, a board story, an activity and an idea card for parents. Borrow a kit for a fun family activity.

Teen Reads

What’s new in the teen section? Take a look at some new selections. Watch for links to the speed book talks.
